

Hello, I'm

Brianna Roberts

SEWING | PATTERN DESIGN | INSTRUCTOR
CONTENT CREATOR

Sew Cute and Quirky

Let's work together!

Brianna enjoys producing content for crafting and sewing products which inspire her followers to be active in the handmade arts community. She shares her unique point of view by utilizing visual elements such as photos and videos to engage others to get creative. Her background as a physics teacher and love for making something handmade ignites fun and excitement from the delivery of her social media posts. This interesting balance of science and art have led to her development of online content, CAD designed sewing patterns and instruction for others via hands-on classes and video tutorials.

Her posts have been shared by Bernina, Aurifil Thread, and Hobbs Batting as well as other brands.

Brands she has worked with:

 accuquilt

 fabrics
